

Dear Business Person/Owner,

I am excited to tell you about ways to gain valuable exposure for your business while helping disadvantaged children in the East Bay.

On Monday, May 3rd, 2010, the East Bay Agency for Children (EBAC) will hold its annual fundraiser at the historic Claremont Country Club, in Oakland.

We hope you will join us for a day of camaraderie, golf, and a scrumptious dinner. In addition to golf on one of Northern California's premier courses, there are various sponsorship opportunities available to promote your name and business to EBAC supporters, and their friends and families.

- ☞ Hole (T-Box) Sponsor. Large message boards posted at one or more holes, at the clubhouse, and in our program, and website. $200 each.
- ☞ Dinner Sponsor. Covers EBAC cost for dinner. Acknowledgement at dinner. Signage, program, newsletter and homepage website recognition. $5,000
- ☞ Box Lunch Sponsor. Business promotion on and within lunch packaging, as well as program and website recognition. $2,500
- ☞ Closest to Pin Sponsor. Promotion generates excitement on course for best "par 3 short shot" of the tournament, as well as recognition in program and on website. $250
- ☞ Longest Drive Sponsor. Signage at hole promotes biggest hitter in the tournament. Sponsor recognition on course, in program and on website. $250
- ☞ Putting Contest Sponsor. Prior to golf tournament, clubhouse lawn is stage for a contest to recognize best putter. Sponsor receives clubhouse signage, program and website recognition. $250
- ☞ Par 3 Monte Carlo Sponsor. Contestants double their wager if their ball stops within a circle around pin. Sponsor receives signage at the contest, at the dinner, and on website. $200
- ☞ Additional sponsorships:
 - Wine Sponsor (provide wine on course, for social hour, and dinner)
 - Cigar Sponsor (on course, booth/promotion)
 - Tequila Sponsor (on course, booth/promotion)

Thank you,
East Bay Agency for Children
