A program of East Bay Agency for Children

Is Currently Seeking Volunteer Facilitators

for our

Grief and Illness Support Groups for Families with Children

Circle of Care is the only East Bay organization focused on the emotional needs of children aged 3-17 facing the imminent or recent death of a parent.

Our volunteers receive intensive initial training, with follow up skill-builders throughout the year. Once the training is completed, they will lead art, play and social engagement opportunities with children and adults living with this unique family experience.

Spanish speakers especially needed

Twice monthly, we provide concurrent support groups for: “Littles”, “Kids”, “Pre-teens”, “Teens”, “Adult Caregivers” and “Parents Living with Serious Illness”

Won't you be a part of their lives through this difficult time by providing them emotional safety, through creativity, kindness, openness and fun?

Our next Volunteer Facilitator Training modules are for: January and August, 2010
Applications NOW ACCEPTED year round!
